Second Sunday of Advent

December 3 - 4, 2022

4:00 p.m.	Eldon Pluemer
8:00 a.m.	Francis & Harriet Freese
10:00 a.m.	People of the Parish

"Let us then throw off the works of darkness," Saint Paul exhorts us today. It is time to prepare for the coming of the light. We do not want to be caught unaware when the Lord comes. Though we naturally look forward to Christmas Day, today's readings remind us that Jesus will also come to judge us at the end of time. Unlike Christmas Day, which always falls on December 25th, the end of the world will come at a time we cannot know. Therefore, let us live in the light of Christ, "the armor of light" as Paul calls it, ever prepared for his coming.

According to the Center for Disease Control Guidelines: Unvaccinated persons are encouraged to wear face masks and to physically distance from those not in the same household unit. It is also strongly encouraged that all parishioners receive communion in the hand; however, we will not refuse any parishioners who request communion on the tongue. If you have any questions on masses, please contact Fr. Dick at (608)763-2671.

Inclement Weather: If school is cancelled during the week due to weather, masses for that day will also be cancelled at school and church. If school is cancelled due to the weather on a Wednesday, any scheduled religious education classes on that evening will also be cancelled.

Into the Deep Strategic Planning: Financial Trends: At present, we are facing financial challenges impacting our mission and our employees. To stay informed about where God is leading us during this strategic planning process to achieve a brighter future, sign up at <https://www.intothedeepmadison.org/stay-connected> for our newsletter. May God help all of us follow Him into the deep!

Go Make Disciples: Baby Jesus Is Coming! To prepare for His coming, give 1% of your day (14 minutes & 24 seconds) reading God's word for the Advent Challenge. The POWER of God's word is unpredictable and could change your life! For an Advent Challenge Card, please contact Kathy Bartels at (608)778-0885.
